Plum 477—Here's a physician's opportunity. An owner overreached himself and built this grand ten-room residence only to find that he can't keep up the expense, interest, etc. He must seil it now, quick, or lose it. It's built in ideal fashion for a private sanitarium. Roomy verandas, well sheeted, faces south; enormous rooms that could be divided into smaller wards. Hardwood hall stairway, two halls, separate bath and toilet; compartment cellar; furnace. Large grounds, 75x125 feet. The house is brand new and cost nearly $7,000 to build. I can deliver the house and grounds for less than the cost of the house. Price, $8,500. Good terms.

WE OFFER YOU THE CHANCE OF UYING A HOME WHILE SAVING

ITS COST.

We have just completed a 7-room modern, right up to date, pressed brick home, of which we are especially proud.

It is, to begin, on First South streetnext to Brigham the finest residence street in Salt Lake.

It has sewer connections, and if you don't think sewers count for something, just look at the statistics compiled by the board of health.

It has "swell" mantels, art tiling, porcelain and nickel plumbing.

Every electric light fixture in the house is in its place.

It has furnace heat, large cellar, and is a full two-story house.

Cement sidewalks from Main street to this property.

We want just an area $1000 for this
